Collector of South Kanara.

To

The Secretary to the Board of Revenue,
Land Revenue and Settlement, Madras.

Sir,

ALLOWANCES - Jari Brahmadaya inam - Udipi Taluk - No.40 - Readmission -

Jari Brahmadaya Inam Class I No.40 of Udipi Taluk of an annual value of Rs.5-9-1 which was being paid by beriz deduction was struck off the register in this office P.Dis.No.3438-37 dated 6.8.37 as the allowance had not been claimed for more than six years. Adiga Narasimha Bhatta, the holder of the inam, now applies for the payment of the arrears, and states that he could not claim them earlier as he was away from his village. Enquiry held in the matter shows that the services attached to the inam were being regularly performed during the period the allowance was not claimed. But, I do not think that the absence of the holder from the village is a satisfactory explanation for not claiming the amount for over 6 years. I, therefore, recommend that the allowance may be re-admitted with effect from the
